

Retreat

Women in Leadership

15 to 18 October 2026

Our travel partner

We have partnered with African Sojourns, who craft bespoke itineraries to reflect the soul of the African continent; and who ensure a professional and safe travel experience. Visit them here

African Sojourns

African Sojourns

Our Retreat is for senior women

This Retreat has been designed for you if you are -

- Leading in complex environments
- Navigating organisational politics
- Preparing for future-focused leadership
- Seeking clarity, renewal, and strategic direction.

What you can expect

Across two and a half immersive days, you will move through a powerful and unrushed experience.

- Games drives, nature walks, yoga and mindfulness practises to ground you, and to restore clarity and energy
- A curated and luxury welcome box, honouring the communities and landscape of the Retreat
- Storytelling circles and long tables that create psychological safety and shared wisdom
- A beautiful context for reflection and connecting to insight and intuition.
- A deep dive into organisational politics and influence
- Faculty led sessions on generative AI, the future of work and leading in disruption and transition
- A financial and investment masterclass tailored for women leaders
- Frameworks to refine your leadership value and visibility strategy
- Design thinking to map your next actions with intention.

Our itinerary

Thursday, 15 to Sunday, 18 October 2026

You will engage in carefully created conversations, frameworks and experiences.

Thursday Afternoon Intentional Arrivals

Transport from Johannesburg and game drive.

Thursday Evening Lift Your Gaze

A deliberate transition from urgency to presence. Through grounding practices, and connection, reclaim your mental space and restore your wellbeing.

Experience our first, welcome storytelling circle.

Friday Power, Politics & Provocations

Early morning game drive to restore and reconnect with your leadership centre.

A strategic exploration of influence, organisational dynamics, and distinctive value.
You will map your organisational political landscape, refine your leadership value proposition, and engage in faculty-led sessions on:

- The Future of Work & AI
— how technology, automation, and new workforce models reshape leadership expectations
- Financial & Investment Insight for Women Leaders — strengthening financial fluency, strategic investment thinking, and long-term wealth confidence.

Long table lunch to explore your new network and connections.

Nature walk.

Dinner and our mid- way
storytelling circle.

Saturday Possibilities and Pathways Forward

Early morning game drive to look to look ahead and explore a new leadership horizon.

A future-focused design process that integrates wellbeing, ambition, and strategic clarity. Through design thinking, career mapping, and forward-looking storytelling, define the next chapter of your leadership and the identity required to step into it. Design milestones and markers ahead for your path ahead.

Long table lunch to explore your
new network and connections.

Nature walk

Dinner and our final
story telling circle.

Sunday Morning Intentional Departures

Early morning game drive and a deliberate transition back into individual reality.

What you will leave with

- A renewed sense of presence, purpose, and wellbeing
- A personalised political intelligence map
- A distinctive leadership value proposition
- A leverage and visibility strategy that supports sustainable influence
- Insight into how AI and future-of-work trends will shape your leadership
- Greater financial fluency and long-term investment confidence
- A Leadership Possibility Map for your next chapter
- A powerful network of senior women who 'get it'
- Clear commitments, milestones and measures that anchor your next bold moves.

What your sponsoring organisation gains

We have carefully and deliberately designed this retreat to benefit both the women who attend as well as the organisations that sponsor them, who gain leaders that return: -

- More grounded and resilient
- More politically intelligent and strategically aligned
- More confident in navigating AI-driven change
- More financially astute
- More connected to a cross-industry network
- More intentional about their leadership impact.

Our intention is to provide deeply personalised experiences and opportunities to gain useable tools that can be brought back into workplaces and teams for sustainable growth.

Your investment

This premium experience is an investment of R70,500.00 (ex-vat) per leader and includes

 Pre-retreat onboarding	 Airport transfers from Johannesburg	 Full accommodation and meals for 3 nights,
 An exclusive leadership experience and resources	 Game drives, guided walks,	 A curated welcome pack.

Both upfront payment, and payment plans are available for self-funded and organisationally sponsored places.

Register your interest here

We meet with each prospective woman ahead of finalising our cohorts for each Retreat.

Follow

 @womenandco.io

 @womenandco.io

 @womenandco.io

Get in touch with us on:

 hello@womenco.io

 Elaine@womenco.io

 Kerrin@womenco.io

 +353 83 365 8395

 +27 82 339 0872